SCOTT KILIAN'S BLOG

From the Assistant Scout Executive- Scott Kilian

We've had a busy Fall with school recruiting and several events such as Spook-O-Ree come and go! If you attended a school recruitment as a pack leader, thank you so much for helping YOUR Pack grow! We didn't do as well as expected in many areas, but our District Executives are still working the phones and getting into private schools to increase your pack membership. You can still help by making sure all the kids who come to your meeting are on the Pack roster. Please do a check at your next meeting and let us know if someone is coming to the meetings but are not listed- they are not registered so we need to get that taken care of.

We aren't done yet with some activities such as Environmental Science Merit Badge for our Scouts BSA members and Duty to God Workshop for our Cub Scouts. Please see the information in this newsletter to get registered for these two great events.

The districts are all looking for volunteers to be on their District Committees so if you know of a scouter who recently "retired" but would be a great committee member, let us know. Even a parent or leader of an Eagle Scout who still wants to be involved but not at the troop level, would be great as well- just shoot your DE an email or call me at the office and I will pass on the information.

The District Award of Merit Award nominations are due on December 15th to your District Executive. We want to recognize District leaders who have helped the district with events, training, etc., but we need you to submit the form to your DE. These are not folks who help at the unit level- they must be helping at the district level. The Silver Beaver Award is also due to the council on December 7th. There are folks who have done work at the Council level, not the district. Look for the two forms below:

We wish you and your family a wonderful Thanksgiving Holiday. We are so thankful for your leadership, your confidence in our program, and your willingness to entrust your children to the best youth serving organization in the world.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Scott

EDITOR'S NOTE

Hello Golden Spread Council volunteers, parents, staff and board members!

November is upon us! This is the month that we look to to kick start the holidays that will soon appear - Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Eve and Day. This has been a bum year for my family personally, however, there is still a lot to be thankful for. There are blessings all around us; we just have to look for them! It's a lot easier to be happy and grateful for what I still have instead of dwelling on what has been lost. Happiness is a choice and I sincerely hope that you will choose happiness through this holiday season! Blessings to you and have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Lots of events coming in 2024! The list of Cub Scouting and Scouts BSA activities for 2024 will come out in next month's newsletter so you can get them on your calendar! Be sure to visit the council website at www.goldenspread.org regularly to get information on upcoming events, registration and deadlines and any date changes that may occur.

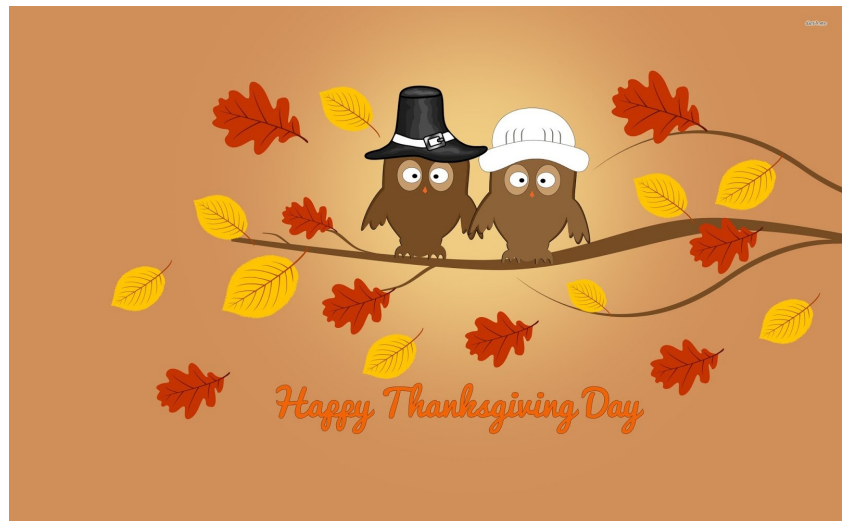

The newsletter will be going out every month and will contain the most current information available for council, district, and unit events. Please send unit event information, dates and pictures to Gemma Mitchell at gemma.mitchell@scouting.org or call 806-282-8296 and leave me a voicemail. Please turn in all submissions for the newsletter in non-PDF format each month by the 25th! Don't forget to forward all of your unit fun and activities to your district executive! If you don't know who they are or how to contact them, look on the green tabbed district pages here in the newsletter.

We are really excited to get this newsletter out to you and we are even more excited to include you and your youth! The youth of the Golden Spread Council is why we all do what we do in Scouting and when we stay focused on them, we all win!

Yours in Scouting,

Gemma Mitchell

NEWS TO KNOW AS WE HEAD INTO BRIDGING SEASON FOR CUB SCOUTS TO SCOUTS BSA

Webelos-to-Scout Transition

Pack Responsibilities:

It should be the goal of the Cubmaster and Webelos den leaders to graduate every Webelos Scout into a Scouts BSA troop. The key to accomplishing this is to begin promoting the full Scouting journey when Cub Scouts are still in their Tiger, Wolf, and Bear dens, helping Scouts and their families view Scouting as an ongoing adventure.

Pack and den leaders can use these tips to help Webelos take the next step and bridge into a Scouts BSA troop:

- Develop a working relationship with the leadership of a Scouts BSA troop or troops in the community. Most troops should have either an assistant Scoutmaster or a committee member assigned to new Scouts. Your unit commissioner can help put you in contact with troop leaders.
- Compare calendars of troop and pack activities to coordinate. Community events can be done together, and planning can help prevent conflicts in use of equipment and facilities.
- Work with troop leaders to secure den chiefs for each Webelos den and Cub Scout den.
- Work with troop leaders to plan and conduct Webelos overnight activities.
- Work with troop leaders to plan visits to troop meetings. Never show up without first calling in advance.
- Invite the Scoutmaster and troop youth leaders to special pack activities. This will help create familiarity and a level of comfort for the Webelos Scouts and their parents as they ease into the troop.
- Plan a meaningful crossover ceremony. Include troop leadership to be present to accept the Webelos Scouts as they graduate.
- Webelos leaders should be strongly encouraged to move into the troop with their Scouts, either as assistant Scoutmasters or troop committee members. This will give them a familiar face at troop meetings and a connecting link.
- If a troop does not exist in your community, discuss with the head of the pack's chartered organization about the possibility of organizing a troop. A graduating Webelos den can form the nucleus of a new troop.

Scout Shop Holiday Giving Tree Begins November 20

YOUR HELP IS REQUESTED

Hello Leader, the Golden Spread Council Scout Shop is providing an opportunity for the Scouting community to help local Scout members who may be in need of uniforms and uniform items.

This help will be done through The Holiday Giving Tree program starting November 20 through December 15, 2023. The Holiday Giving Tree program works on a donation basis. A Holiday Giving tree (similar to an Angel tree) will be set up at the Scout Shop with Holiday Giving cards on it. Each card will have the rank of the Scout along with the uniform items that they need. There will also be a space for other items they may want such as books, crafts, camping items, etc. Customers and Scout supporters can purchase the item(s) in the local Scout Shop and give them to the store staff to collect for each child.

We will keep the name of the individual(s) confidential. Only the store staff will have access to the Scout's name and your contact information. A code will be issued that will match a card in the safe that will have your contact information, so as the donations are collected store staff will contact you so arrangements for pickup can be made.

We need your assistance to make this project a success. Please fill out the information below and return to the store by November 20, 2023 for every Scout who would benefit from donations.

If you have any concerns or questions, please contact the store staff by email: Heidi.Anuszkiewicz@scouting.org. Thank you in advance for your assistance. With leaders like you, this program will greatly benefit our Scouting community.

Country music superstar buys popcorn from local Cub Scouts

Five years ago, Cub Scout Pack 311 in Valley Village, California, had a celebrity stop by and make a contribution while the pack was selling popcorn at a grocery store.

A couple of weeks ago, the same pack, selling popcorn at the same grocery store, was once again approached by a celebrity who was more than willing to contribute to the cause.

This time it was country music superstar Reba McEntire, one of the most successful recording artists of all time, who just happened to be shopping (by herself!) when she noticed the Cub Scouts selling popcorn and walked over to say hello.

“She was very nice,” says Pack 311 popcorn kernel Aaron Picot. “She was smiling brightly the whole time and chatting with us.”

Picot says he doesn’t think the Cub Scouts knew who she was, but they must have handled themselves well enough — McEntire walked out with three bags of popcorn.

McEntire was born in Oklahoma and spends much of her time in Nashville, Tennessee. However, she’s likely in California to film The Voice, the popular reality singing competition show that she hosts alongside some of the music industry’s biggest names.

McEntire has sold more than 75 million records in her career and appeared in multiple movies and TV shows, including Reba, her own sitcom that ran for six seasons on The WB.

In 1992, she opened Reba's Ranch House, built for families who have a loved one hospitalized in North Texas or South Oklahoma.

Why do Scouts sell popcorn?

Since 1980, BSA members have sold popcorn to offset the costs of experiences such as day camps, summer camps, high-adventure camps and exciting activities at the unit level. Scouts can even sell popcorn to pay for a trip to the National Scout Jamboree or a trip overseas.

The process of selling popcorn also teaches skills that Scouts can take with them into adulthood, like decision making, money management, goal setting, business ethics, entrepreneurship and people skills.

The smartest way to sell popcorn as a fundraising tool for your unit is to follow the guidance of your local council. That way, you're guaranteed to be partnered up with an authorized, licensed supplier, which helps support the brand, and Scouting itself.

If your unit isn't selling popcorn already, now is the time. Contact your local council to get everything you need to get started fundraising in time for the fall.
