2026 Scouts BSA Camping and Activities

January 24: Merit Badge University: Currently scheduled to take place at West Texas A&M University, this full day of merit badge classes is a great way to start the year of scouting.

February 28: OKPIK Winter Adventure Camp: This is held annually at Camp MK Brown and offers many different and unique merit badge classes that change each year.

April 4: Scouting for Food: Held primarily in the Amarillo area and other selected communities. Scouts walk neighborhoods collecting non-perishable food to support the local Food Bank or Pantry.

April 11: Camporee: Held at Camp Don Harrington, this event is an opportunity to show off your scouting skills and have FUN!

April 24-26: Philmont Family Weekend: All scouts and family members are invited to attend this mountaintop adventure at Philmont Scout Ranch located in Cimarron, NM.

May 31-June 5: National Youth Leadership Training Course: Held at Camp MK Brown, National Youth Leadership Training is an exciting, action-packed program designed to provide youth members with leadership skills and experience they can use in their home troops/crews and in other situations demanding leadership of self and others.

June 14-20: Scouts BSA Summer Camp: Held at Camp MK Brown, Scouts can participate in merit badges during the day and fun activities in the evenings. For adults, we offer activities for you as well such as a Dutch Oven Cookoff competition! Our camp is certified by the National Boy Scouts of America and the Health Department.

October 17 and 24: Spook-O-Ree: Held at Camp MK Brown (Oct 17) and Camp Don Harrington (Oct 24), this event is a great opportunity to earn service hours and have a fall campout!

November 7: Environmental Science Merit Badge Class: This class is taught by West Texas A&M University and is hosted at Camp Don Harrington.
